Under the supervision of the Project Manager, in partnership with health plans and clinical providers, the Community Health Worker (CHW) works to build relationships with people experiencing homelessness and/or multiple chronic health conditions. The CHW provides advocacy and assists with connection to health services, housing and other social services.

The primary goal for a CHW is to assist persons experiencing homelessness or various chronic health conditions to access health, behavioral health, housing and social services. The CHW will administer assessment tools, facilitate placement into emergency housing and connect to social services. The CHW will also assist program enrollees in obtaining health insurance, establishing care with a primary medical home, and following up on health care needs as appropriate. When applicable, the CHW will connect eligible persons with County Mental Health Plan and System of Care services. The CHW will work as part of a larger team within Sacramento Covered and the engage with various other community agencies and local service providers.
